AUSTRIAN ARMY IS IN RETREAT ALLIES PRESS ON

Large Force of Allies Crosses The Piave in Pursuit.

Ammunition of Enemy Being Rapidly Exhausted Big Guns Are Withdrawn.

(By Associated Press Cable)
At Italian Headquarters on the Piave, October 29.—Austrian forces are retreating under increasing pressure, and it is felt the attacks against the enemy will become overwhelming as soon as the entire allied force can enter the action.

With three successive days of fair weather an extremely large body of troops with supplies has crossed the Piave.

It is expected the Austrian munition supply will give out. There are indications the enemy heavy artillery is being withdrawn in an effort to save the big guns.

CHOOSE CAPITAL

(By Associated Press Cable)
Paris, October 30.—The Czechoslovak council of state has decided to make Pressburg the capital of Slovakia, according to the newspaper here.

NO CHANGE MADE

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Washington, October 30.—It was stated later this evening that the new German communication made no change in the situation. The next step is expected to be an announcement from one or all of the capitals of belligerents of the armistice terms.

TWO DEATHS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Camp Sherman, October 30.—Only two deaths from influenza were reported during the 24-hour period ending at noon. The total now is 1,064. The two victims were James G. Williams, of Big Rock, Tenn., and Clarence Hatfield, of Arlington, Tenn.

OFFICIALS DEEPLY INTERESTED IN THE NOTE OF AUSTRIANS

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Washington, October 30.—President Wilson was not expected to make known his decision as to Austria's renewed plea for an armistice until official text of a note from Count Andrássy, the new Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, to Secretary Lansing was received. The unofficial text of the communication as transmitted from Vienna via Basel, Switzerland, by the Associated Press, was received early today and was read by officials with undisguised interest.

AUSTRIA'S PLIGHT NOW DESPERATE

Danube Monarchy Anxious to Conclude Issues Because of Wrath of Berlin.

(By Associated Press Cable)
Paris, October 30.—The second note of Count Julius Andrássy, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister to President Wilson is interpreted to mean that Austria is in a desperate plight and has exhausted her power of resistance.

"The Danubian monarchy seeks an issue all the more promptly because it knows of the anger aroused across the Rhine because of its defection and threats of vengeance which inspire the Berlin Cabinet," says a Paris newspaper.

AUSTRIAN FLEET CONCENTRATED

(Associated Press Cable)
Paris, October 30.—The Austrian fleet has been hastily concentrated at Fiume, according to a dispatch from Rome to the Temp. under date of October 27. A few vessels remain at Pola but all that were at Cattaro have left. It is said that the concentration was demanded by Hungary.

MORE THAN TWENTY THOUSAND PRISONERS HAVE BEEN TAKEN SINCE LAST GREAT OFFENSIVE ON ITALIAN FRONT WAS LAUNCHED A FEW DAYS AGO.

IMPORTANT CENTERS TAKEN IN ADVANCES AUSTRIAN RESISTANCE MATERIALLY WEAKENED BITTER FIGHTING BY YANKS IN THE MEUSE SECTOR

French Forces Are Gradually Tightening up the Lines About Guise. Activity About Valenciennes Has perceptibly Slackened.

(By The War Editor of The Associated Press)

One year ago the Italian armies were streaming westward from the Isonzo with a great military disaster imminent. Today the Italians, with British and French divisions fighting with them and with American contingents in reserve, are pouring through what appears to be a breach in the Austrian lines east of the Piave river.

Valdobbiadene has been captured, Conegliano has been occupied and along a line stretching south the allies are moving steadily ahead. Prisoners numbering over 20,000 have been captured during the fighting.

Reports from the Piave front seem to indicate that after the first rush of the allies the Austrian resistance weakened greatly and there are indications that all along the center of the line the enemy defense has been crushed. The sweep of the allies eastward appears to have gained momentum and it seems probable that the next few days may see the whole Austrian army along the Piave in retreat.

BITTER FIGHTING ON THE MEUSE

Bitter fighting has been going on in the Meuse sector during the past day or two. East of the Meuse the American forces have moved ahead once more and have wrested important positions from the Germans. West of the Meuse the Germans have been heavily bombarding the American lines and back areas with gas and high explosive shells. American long range artillery has been pounding the German supply lines at Conflans.

FRENCH STRIKE NEAR THE ARGONNE

West of the Argonne forest the French have begun an attack which seems to promise the turning of the Aisne line which is the main obstacle to the French advance immediately west of the Argonne in the region of Vouzier. The new attack was over the front from St. Quentin to Herpy north of the Aisne and progress made in the first few hours of the onslaught indicated that important results are within reach.

FIGHTING AROUND GUISE

On the Oise-Serre front the French are slowly tightening their hold on the lines about Guise, while south of that town they are moving ahead in spite of desperate resistance on the part of the enemy.

In the neighborhood of Valenciennes they are apparently checked for the moment at least, no significant progress having been made there the past day or two. North of Valenciennes the French, British and Belgians have improved their lines but do not appear to have succeeded in breaking through the German defensive line defending Ghent.

ARMISTICE TERMS TO INCLUDE SURRENDER OF GERMAN FLEET

TERMS OF ARMISTICE, IT IS REPORTED, ARE ALREADY AGREED UPON BY SUPREME WAR COUNCIL NOW MEETING AT VERSAILLES.

RHINE CITIES MUST BE SURRENDERED

The Versailles conference has, it is reported, agreed upon the terms for an armistice and also for the final peace demands. It is said they will be submitted simultaneously to the German government.

London reports that the allied nations will demand the surrender of the German fleet, including all submarines, and occupation of all fortified towns on the Rhine.

ANOTHER GERMAN NOTE RECEIVED RECITES GOVERNMENTAL REFORMS

Again United States is Assured That The Terms of The Armistice Are Awaited

President Wilson Working on His Reply to Austria When News of Second German Note is Received.

WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 30.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Another note from the German government reached Washington today. It supplements the last brief communication, saying armistice terms were awaited, by reciting in detail governmental changes which had taken place in Germany as evidence that the Kaiser had been deprived of all power of making war and negotiating peace.

Frederick Oederlin, the Swiss charge, received the German note and appeared at the State Department shortly before noon to deliver it. This time the Germans do not address President Wilson personally, but send the information for the American government, apparently recognizing that the stage of personal appeals has passed with the transmission of their armistice and peace plans to the allies.

It reiterates that the actual powers and responsibilities of the government has been transferred to the Reichstag and describes the progress of the necessary constitutional changes.

The note will be forwarded immediately to Paris where the Supreme War Council already is reported to have formulated terms upon which the United States and the allies might permit a cessation of hostilities.

As word of the new German move came it was learned that President Wilson was working today on a reply to the last notes from Vienna in which the Austrian government accepted all principles and conditions of the President, and asked for armistice and peace proposals. The reply, which probably will be made public before night, is expected to inform the authorities at Vienna that on the basis of acceptance of all conditions, including actual independence and not mere autonomy for subject nationalities, their request has been referred to the governments with which the United States is associated.

STATE'S QUOTA WAR WORK DRIVE IS $15,800,000

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., October 30.—Ohio's quota in the big United War Work campaign to be conducted during the week of November 11 to 18 has been increased from $10,450,000 to $15,800,000.

This large increase was announced today after Ohio war workers had been appealed to by Dr. John R. Mott, director of the campaign to oversubscribe its original quota of $10,450,000 by at least 50 per cent.

Ohio workers were among the first in the country to decide upon an enlarged quota. They are going on the assumption that the national goal is $250,000,000 instead of $170,500,000.

THE FUNCTIONS OF GOVERNMENT TAKEN BY CZECKS

Local Government at Prague, Bohemia, Removes Austrian Government Symbols.

(By Associated Press Cable)

Copenhagen, October 30.—The Czechs national committee took over the functions of the local government in Prague, the Bohemian capital, on Monday, marking the final step in its successful revolution, according to a telegram from Berlin to the National Tidende.

The Austrian Imperial symbols were removed from various buildings and imperial proclamations torn down. The city officials have taken an oath of fidelity to the Czech state.

During Monday night the general commanding the Prague garrison and his staff placed the entire armed forces in the city at the disposal of the Czechs' national committee.

FLAMES DESTROY ALMOST A HALF OF THE VILLAGE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Alliance, Ohio, October 30.—More than half of the village of Hanover, Columbiana county, 16 miles southeast of here, was wiped out by fire early today. Flames are still sweeping the village. Practically every business place was destroyed. Firemen from Salem and Lisbon were summoned but their apparatus became fast in the mud and could not reach the fire.

The loss will be $150,000 to $200,000, only half of which is covered by insurance, according to residents of the village. No one was injured.

It is believed the fire was caused by incendiary origin and the State Fire Marshal was appealed to to send deputies to investigate.

RELATIONS BEGUN

(By Associated Press Cable)

Basel, Switzerland, October 30.—Count Andrássy, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has entered into diplomatic relations with members of the Czechoslovak government in Paris, according to the Hungarian newspaper Norodny Listy.

EXAMINERS ARE KEPT VERY BUSY

A corps of physicians and assistants were kept busy at Memorial Hall Wednesday morning, examining the registrants of Class One who were summoned for physical examination Wednesday, and the work was completed almost in record time.

A large number of the men examined had just recovered from the influenza and many of them were in a greatly weakened condition, so that a little exertion, such as required in the physical tests, caused heart action that reached, in some cases, 160 pulsations per minute, indicating it will be some time before the men who suffered of the disease will be in prime physical condition once more.

Everything connected with the examinations moved smoothly and the work was accomplished without unnecessary delay.

The result of the examination will be published as speedily as obtainable.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Mr. Chas. Burnett, Columbus Avenue, this city, is in receipt of the accompanying letter from his son who is in European waters doing his bit against the Hun sea wasps, and his statement regarding the purchase of Liberty Bonds will be read with particular interest.

U. S. S. Shawmut,
September 29, 1918.

Dear Folks:

Three months ago today we sailed into the place where we now are and I can't help but think of what has taken place since then. We have given the Germans more decisive punch than any other branch of the service, but I can't tell you how.

Yesterday was the first day of the Fourth Liberty Loan and by last night every man in the ship's company had a bond, making us have one hundred per cent the first day. The average was a little over one hundred dollars to the man.

If people on the outside did as well as that according to their salaries and the distance they are from the Keel Canal, speakers wouldn't have to yell themselves hoarse selling bonds.

We came into port this morning and a very pleasant surprise came aboard today and took our pictures. I suppose by that we must have been the first 100 per cent ship.

Passed the exams for engineers, second class, that is a second class petty officer, but don't get it till there is a vacancy or I get transferred.

Am in the best of health. You can live this put in the paper if you want to let people know that we don't lay down on the bonds, just because we're playing in the Kaiser's yard.

Yours,

RAYMOND F. BURNETT.

U. S. S. Shawmut, U. S. Naval Forces in European Waters, care Postmaster, New York.

ALL PRANKS MUST BE CAST ASIDE

The authorities again call attention to the fact that the law regulating the good order of the city will be rigidly enforced and that no Halloween pranks will be tolerated where there is noise, disturbance, damage to property or any of the usual lawless methods resorted to by mischievous youths in playing Halloween pranks.

Special police will aid in the work of arresting offenders if there be any.

READJUSTMENT WORK PLANNED

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, October 30. — In the great task of internal reconstruction after the war, the War Industries Board seems certain to continue in existence and play a large part in the transformation of war manufacturing back to peace time production.

This is one feature of the government's program for easing the nation's business from the pinch of war to the pursuits of peace without convulsing it in the process. In a sense, the program is tentative, because its formulation has just begun. Nevertheless the planning for peace is giving all government agencies in Washington these days material for as systematic thought as the prosecution of war.

Industrial reconstruction, next to demobilization of the army, is probably the most important phase of these plans. How to stop the manufacture of shells, of guns, of army and navy supplies, without stopping the industrial wheels which made them, and to furnish new work for these wheels, is a problem which agencies of the War Industries Board will be called on to solve. This means that the hundreds of industrial and commercial leaders who have been called to Washington will have to continue their services for essential peace work, or substitutes for them be found.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

Eighty per cent of American fires are preventable.

Fire losses in the United States with the upkeep of fire departments occasioned by losses total in war time annually $450,000,000.

Saturday, Nov. 2, has been set aside by Governor Cox as Fire and Accident Prevention Day, that loyal and thoughtful minds may be turned to the need of fire prevention.

The annual fire loss in America would pay the interest on three Liberty Loans.

Therefore successful effort in the prevention of fire adds that much to the country's resources for war.

The Governor urges the hearty cooperation of all state and civic bodies, churches, schools, colleges, women's clubs, etc., to carry out the precepts of the day.

SIMPLE SERVICES PRECEDE COMMITTAL

A profusion of beautiful flowers surrounded the casket.

The pallbearers were Messrs. S. F. Snider, Wm. Backenstoe, O. S. Dowden, Frank DeWitt, Guy Dowden, Frank Thornton.

An Advance Display of—

Mid-Winter Hats

A Woman's Morale Depends a Great Deal on the Fit of Her Suit and the Becomingness of Her Hat.

Miss Geraldine Farrar says: "It is absolutely right and natural for a woman to dress in pretty and becoming clothes, and if she is a normal person frumpy things make her almost so uncomfortable as unbrushed teeth or unbrushed hair, and I do not think people ought to try to make us ugly and unattractive by urging us to dress all alike or to wear old clothes."

What can give a woman more satisfaction than a becoming hat, and there is nothing frumpy about these brilliant styles that are just in—we couldn't wait longer to show them.

There are stunning styles aplenty for the very particular.

Close fitting turbans in fur and heavier cloth and the shapes are innumerable and original as can be.

TRIBUTE PAID TO AMERICAN FARMER

Perhaps no branch of the public service is in position to appreciate so promptly and so fully as the Bureau of Crop Estimates what has been accomplished by the farmers of the United States since the breaking out of the world war. From the reports of its thousands of voluntary crop reporters and its field agents who travel over each State and report weekly and monthly their observations, the bureau is in constant touch with the progress of crop production from months to month and year to year. It has seen the supply of farm labor steadily decrease from heavy drafts made upon it by other industries, especially since the beginning of the war, and it has noted the decrease in the supply of commercial fertilizers. It has noted also the steadily rising prices of farm machinery, farm wages, and everything that farmers have to buy. While it had unbounded faith in the patriotism and determination of farmers to do their utmost to help win the war by maintaining the production of food and raw materials it has marveled that the farmers of the United States apparently have accomplished the impossible by continuing to plant larger crops and to harvest larger crops in the aggregate with each year of the war in spite of the decreasing supply of labor. The planting and cultivation of 32,000,000 acres more in 1917 than in 1914 by the farmers of this country is comparable with anything that has been accomplished by any other industry, not excepting the building of ships, the manufacture of munitions and supplies, or the phenomenal increase in the military forces, because the tremendous increase in agriculture was accomplished with fewer and fewer men, while the other industries constantly increased their man power, largely at the expense of agriculture. This great achievement of American farmers is not so spectacular nor has it received the same publicity and recognition as the launching of some hundreds of new ships, the manufacture of large quantities of munitions, or quarry airplanes, or Liberty motors, or the transport of unprecedented numbers of troops over seas, because the preparation of the soil, the planting, cultivation and harvest of crops are slow processes and are not concentrated in time and place under the direct observation of city people. Nevertheless, the production of food crops on an enlarged scale, at greatly increased expense of time, effort, and labor and by fewer men, steadily and without publicity or the inspiration that comes from large bodies of men working together, has done more to insure the winning of the war against the military despotism of Europe than any other one factor. All the constructive work that has been done by the Federal Department of Agriculture, by the State Colleges of Agriculture and Experiment Stations, and by other State and national agencies since the United States entered the war would have been of no avail without the effective, the efficient, and patriotic service of the American farmer. It is the special function of the Bureau of Crop Estimates to record and publish the acreages planted and the crops harvested by the farmers of the United States, and it therefore seems appropriate at this time that the bureau should record its estimate of their great contribution to the winning of the war.—Monthly Crop Report Secretary of Agriculture.

Delightful and Unusual

In times when we are hearing so much from disappointed or ambitious politicians, in complaint of everything and everybody, it is delightful to read the what Major General Merritt W. Ireland, successor to Major General William C. Gorgas, into whose keeping the health of the men of the great American army has been placed. Instead of announcing that everything his predecessor did was all wrong and the health of the army is in a deplorable condition the new surgeon general of the army delightfully announces that the standard of the medical care given the American soldiers is the highest in the world. Including wounded, he said, only forty-three men in one thousand are ill and that only two per cent suffer from disease.

What a remarkable showing and truly one which is entitled to some words of commendation and Major Ireland is entitled to credit for speaking out boldly and honestly the words of truth.

Major Ireland also calls attention to the fact that as a consequence to the good health prevailing and the splendid attention given the men the morale of the American army is high and a contributing cause for the excellence of "the finest army ever drawn together."

We wonder why it is that America and her institutions, her underpaid and overworked public servants are so highly appreciated everywhere on earth except at home and why Americans have so little to say in praise for the tremendous work of their public servants and are so violent in their criticism.

Some day, may be, Americans will appreciate more fully their great blessings and the work of their servants—some day when we have less politics.

October Wanes

Only one day of this glorious month of October remains—tomorrow is the last day of the month.

From almost every section come reports of lilacs in bloom, roses and other spring flowers have burst forth with a second glory. In the garden the unmaturing vegetables have gone on to maturity unaffected by the frost and cold usual at this season of the year. Lettuce has sprung up voluntarily and raspberry patches have taken on new life and are furnishing a very fair sized second crop.

And with it all the hardy fall flowers have come along in all their splendor, more gorgeous than ever.

Sometimes, though, we fear that the unusual weather has contributed largely to the wide-spread sickness and catch ourselves wishing for a real, genuine killing frost and freeze.

We can't help fearing that such weather is not best for our physical welfare. Much as we are all enjoying the beautiful warm weather, the sunshine and the flowers so unusual, we would gladly bid them all good-bye if to do so would bring better health.

The Kaiser's Fate

Not a few people persist in worrying about what disposition will be made of the Kaiser and whether any punishment at all will be meted out to him and just when these questions will be determined and who will determine them.

Right now there is no more occasion to be worrying about these questions than there was for the nervous old lady who insisted on worrying because she had nothing to worry about.

We Americans feel serenely confident that due reparation will be demanded of the Kaiser; that, at the proper time, civilization will not only demand and see to it that the Kaiser will be placed where he will never again be in a position to menace the peace of the world, but that he will be punished for the monstrous crimes he has perpetrated in the name of war.

There seems to be no reason to doubt that Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and the United States will see that justice is dealt out, in full measure to the arch criminal and fiend of all time.

At the present time, however, there are the fundamental agreements to be made. Disposition and punishment of the Kaiser will come later as an incident and as a consequence to the readjustment.

Reformation of governmental plans and the adoption of basic peace principles are the first consideration. The establishing of a new government in Germany is first and them with the Kaiser, as an individual who has been guilty of wholesale murder, piracy, incendiarism and almost every other monstrous crime in the great book of laws which the Creator has written in the hearts of men, becomes answerable to the nations and the peoples he has so grievously sinned against.

 There are lots of books and papers,
 There are talks and shows and capers,
 And a pleasant voice to cheer him
 if he's shy;
 And they're glad to see him smoking,
 And they love to have him joking
 In the hut or ten or dugout known as "Y."

When he wants a friendly face
 At the front or at the base,
 It's handy sort of place
 To be nigh,
 'Tis a free and easy shanty,
 And the greeting isn't scanty
 At the "Y."

So that nothing need be lacking,
 Lend the Hut your earnest backing—
 Let the boy who bears the battle
 have his club!
 Give more often than you care to;
 Draw the biggest check you dare to,
 For the entry will look well upon the stub
 Help to cheer the youthful fighter;
 Help to make his lot the brighter;
 You can spare a little extra if you try.
 That the lonely, sad or weary
 Shall have comfort, warm and cheery,
 In the winsome little wigwam
 known as "Y."
 It's a heavenly retreat
 For the lad on weary feet (Where we possibly shall meet by and by).
 'Tis a happy little hut
 Where they do not pose or strut,
 And the door is never shut
 At the "Y."

STEPS ON HUN

Private Carmen Bruno, of Forest Park, Ill., photographed at an American base hospital, where he is recovering from a slight wound, showing trinkets he captured from the Germans and his "small number eleven hobnails," which he stamped into the face of a treacherous Hun. Bruno went over the top with a Yankee company, and while passing over the first Hun line noticed a big German lying in a shell hole. Bruno, thinking the Hun was through, was about to go ahead, but turned in time to notice a treacherous move on the part of the Hun, who was playing dead. Bruno turned and let the Hun have his nearest boot in the face, and then gave him the other one, putting the quietus on the Hun with his bayonet.

URGENT NEED OF STREET REPAIRS

Many complaints have been made because of the neglect of some of the up-town streets, where numerous holes have been worn in the paving, so that passing vehicles are given heavy jolts to the great discomfort of, and danger to occupants of the car. Some of the depressions in the streets are a half foot in depth, being worn completely through the brick paving, and a few dollars at the outside and a few hours work would suffice to place the streets in something like passable condition at the worst points. The collection of filth and refuse on the up-town streets make them all the more disagreeable to negotiate, and has made them the talk of all visitors passing through or stopping in the city.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL FROM THIS VICINITY

A large number of relatives and friends from Washington and vicinity gathered with those of the Wilmington and Sabina neighborhoods for the funeral services of Mrs. Philip Ellis, at the country home near Wilmington.

It was indeed a sad gathering with the husband and two children not able to be up and the father, Mr. Alfred Sprague just able to be down stairs. The friends were largely seated on the immense verandah, the ministers standing in the hall so that their words could be audible to those upstairs and outside.

Of the utmost simplicity and sympathy and rich in tribute to the beloved woman who slept amid fragrant flowers, were the services conducted by Rev. Dr. Reynolds, of Sabina, Rev. M. R. Stover, of Columbus, and Rev. Mombberger.

The original plans had been changed and burial was made in the family lot of the Wilmington cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Henry Brownell, Rollo Marchant, Walter Sollars of this section; Mr. Heber Custis, of Sabina and two neighbors; and the honorary pall-bearers Misses Alice Custis, Mary Custis, Alma Sheridan, Maude Reed, Myrtle Johnson and Cecil Reeder, of this city.

News of Interest to Women

There is little to record in the activities of fashionable life in these days when women are rightfully devoting their energies to the "carry on" work which is their part in the war. Consequently "news of interest to women" will now replace the "Social and Personal" page which has for so long chronicled the events of society and assisted in planning its pleasurable affairs.

With the great changes the war has brought women's interests have changed. The vital things are now those which have some connection with the war or the organizations of associate war activities, and the affairs of real human interest.

While occasionally there is an informal gathering or pleasurable affair which lightens the work of service, and in these sad days people need some of the brighter side, yet there is little social life and general news of interest to women will now largely replace the society calendar until the changes of these troublous times are things of the past.

There is quite a little excitement among the girls who are wearing middies, since the rigid enforcement of the section of the national defense act which makes it unlawful for any person not in naval service to wear any uniform or part of uniform resembling a distinctive part of the uniforms worn by officers and enlisted men of the navy.

There are so many official insignia that it is impossible to give explicit information. To be on the safe side all girls who have middies should take them to the dealers and find out definitely whether or not their middie comes within the ban. Should the insignia be official it can be removed and the garment can still be worn.

The women of Uinta County Utah have saved $2500 during the last month by remodeling hats and clothing under supervision of the county home demonstration agent. The work is carried on at meetings to which the women take their materials and work under the agent's supervision. Three hundred and fifty hats have been remodeled, a saving of at least $1500; dresses have been made from coats and suits, waists from old shirts, children's clothing from women's dresses, boys' trousers from men's clothing and boys' overcoats from men's old coats.

These are the days when it is wisdom to encourage every bit of musical talent to the fullest extent. These sentiments are cherished by five of Washington's young musicians who are now holding fortnightly practice and preparing to form a musical club. Tuesday evening they met to discuss plans and hold practice with Miss Roberta Stokesbury, who is the singer of the quintet. The other members are Miss Helen Dixon, violin, Miss Ruth Davenport, mandolin, Miss Mildred Kidd, piano, and Mr. Ernest Harvey cornet.

It is possible that in this quintet may be found an embryo concert troupe, although no such purpose has been announced and it is the intention to take in other members.

Misses Bernadine and Wanda Mae Norris were hostesses to the girls of the "Dar un Paseo" Club, Tuesday night.

ACTIVITIES

MISUSE OF RED CROSS NAME AND EMBLEM

The last issue of "The Lake Division News" again emphasizes the act of Congress forbidding the fraudulent use of the Red Cross insignia—the acts reads.

From and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for a person within the jurisdiction of the United States to falsely or fraudulently hold himself out as or represent or pretend himself to be a member or an agent for the American National Red Cross for the purpose of soliciting, collecting, or receiving money or material; or for any person to wear or display the sign of the Red Cross or any insignia colored in imitation thereof for the fraudulent purpose of inducing the belief that he is a member of or an agent for the American National Red Cross.

It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, or association other than the American National Red Cross and its duly authorized employees and agents and the army and navy sanitary and hospital authorities of the United States for the purpose of trade or as an advertisement to induce the sale of any article whatsoever or for any business or charitable purpose to use within the territory of the United States of America and its exterior possessions the emblem of a Greek Red Cross on a white ground or any sign or insignia made or colored in imitation thereof, or of the words "Red Cross" or "Geneva Cross" or any combination of these words:

Provided, however, that no person, corporation, or association that actually used or whose assignor actually used the said emblem, sign, or insignia, or words for any lawful purpose prior to January fifth, nineteen hundred and five, shall be deemed forbidden by this Act to continue the use thereof for the same purpose and for the same class of goods.

NEW COATS FOR RED CROSS DOGS

"This coat wrinkles across the back," barked a brown-eyed Airedale terrier Saturday morning, as he twisted his head around to see the new jacket which Miss Mary Courtenay, special Red Cross dog tailor, was trying on him.

All five of the Airedales which are being trained at Camp Sherman to act as Red Cross dogs on the battlefield, are having new coats made. The local chapter of the Red Cross when asked if it could make coats for dogs answered that of course it could, so the five coats are being made, and the first one was tried on at Saturday.

The new jackets which made the terriers look down on other dogs, are of khaki, with a red cross on each side, and bound with red braid. They fasten around the dog's neck and under the body.

The Red Cross dogs play an important role, in searching for the wounded out in no man's land. They are trained to carry first aid kits on their errands of mercy, and many a soldier owes his life to one of these mute representatives of the Red Cross. — Chillicothe News Advertiser.

PLANS AFTER-CARE HOSPITALS FOR LAKE DIVISION WOUNDED

Through the Red Cross, announcement is being made of Government plan for the after-care of disabled men.

Throughout the division, appropriate places are being taken over by the Government and remodeled into convalescent military hospitals.

At West Baden (Ind.), the famous West Baden Springs Hotel will be made into a comfortable place for men who have suffered breakdowns in physique and mentality. $2,000,000 will be spent in converting the long ball room into hospital wards. The wonderful atrium, a veritable indoor garden, will make an ideal lounge for the boys. The natatorium for those able to swim and a new recreation building will be part of the equipment.

Another military hospital will be established at Cleveland (O.). A four-story model factory building has been chosen for this purpose and will be altered to conform to hospital requirements.

AIDS VICTIMS

Mrs. William G. McAdoo

Mrs. William G. McAdoo, chairman of the Red Cross Committee of the Treasury Department, has established a relief corps for employees of the Government in Washington who have been stricken with influenza. Under her direction, employees who have come to the capital to do war work have received much needed assistance during their confinement. Unable in many instances to obtain proper care or nourishment, these war workers, chiefly women and girls have been sought out by Mrs. McAdoo and her committee and their wants attended to.

REAL MEANING OF
BUILDING ORDERS
IS FULLY EXPLAINED

Since the War Industries Board sent forth its famous Order No. 21 under date of September 3rd, restricting building, we have had numerous inquiries from our readers as to the exact meaning of that order, and what class of buildings were prohibited and what allowed, and under what conditions.

A matter of such vital importance to the growth of Washington C. H.—a matter which can so radically effect its prosperity—calls for a clear understanding and explanation.

Mr. Sheppard of The Washington Lumber Company explains all, stating that the main idea was to entirely stop ALL building that did not directly or indirectly help toward winning the war; this in order to save fuel, transportation, materials money and, above all, the labor which is so vitally required both in the draft and in direct war work on ships, buildings, airplanes, munitions, supplies, etc., from the raw materials to the finished product.

However, the war Industries Board, realizing the stagnation that would result from a literal reading of this order as well as the damage to property left subject to the ravages of time and use and weather without repairs, modified the rule to permit:—

1. Repairs of or extensions to existing buildings involving in the aggregate a cost of not exceeding $2500; and
2. New construction for farm purposes only involving in the aggregate a cost of not exceeding $1000.

The matter as explained by Mr. Sheppard seems quite clear, and there should be no misunderstanding.

Briefly, any one can, just as before, and without a permit:—

1. Make repairs or extensions to any EXISTING building of any kind, providing the TOTAL COST, including labor, materials and everything else is UNDER $2500.
2. Build any NEW building, for FARM PURPOSES ONLY, where the TOTAL COST as above is UNDER $1000.
3. For ALL OTHER BUILDING WORK, a permit must be first secured through Mr. M. S. Daugherty, Mr. J. D. Post and Mr. A. W. Duff, representing locally the War Industries Board.

It will be seen from the above that while NEW buildings, except small ones for the farm cannot be built without a permit, yet REPAIRS AND NECESSARY EXTENSIONS are permissible without permit; and we believe in view of the tremendous building that will immediately follow the declaration of peace, that it will be exceedingly wise for our readers to plan for all such work at their earliest opportunity.

HUN AIRMEN ARE BUSY AT HOME;
LONDON IS SAFE

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London. — (By Mail) — For four months London has enjoyed immunity from hostile air raids and moonlight nights are no longer dreaded by its inhabitants. For many weeks German airmen have had far more urgent business to attend to on the other side of the channel. Much of this is due to the persistent raiding of Rhine towns and the bombing of German aerodromes. These attacks compel the enemy to muster for their defense machines which they can ill spare from the battlefields where Allied supremacy in the air becomes increasingly manifest.

The frequent raids, on German towns have been fully recorded but the growing frequency of attacks on German aerodromes have received much less attention. From information obtained from the War Ministry it is learned that in the month of August alone there were thirty-three attacks on German aerodromes, nineteen of which were directed against two of them which had become particularly obnoxious as bases of aerial wasps.

In one daylight raid on an aerodrome a fierce combat lasted over forty minutes as a result of which four German machines were destroyed and three others driven down "out of control." Two British machines were lost.

Many of the night raids have been very effective. Over one aerodrome five tons of bombs were dropped, seven direct hits on hangars were made and a fire was started. On another raid eight tons of bombs were dropped and several hangars completely burnt out, and the aerodrome covered with large holes which effectively spoiled it for landing purposes.

The effect of these attacks is to cripple the efficiency of the German aggressive work and their power of retaliation and demoralize their personnel. Their recuperative powers are now at a low ebb.

GROWING SCARCE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
San Francisco, October 30.—Eleven men who came to California in '49 across the continent by prairie trail or by sailing vessel round the Horn met here recently and drank a toast to "the days of gold." They represented the 41 remaining members of the Society of California Pioneers, which at one time comprised 3,000 lovers of adventure. For years the pioneers have held a reunion in this city, but year by year the attendance has dwindled.

Among those who made the last pilgrimage from various parts of the country were three members of the vigilance committee which, in 1856, quelled a reign of terrorism and lawlessness in San Francisco by a number of hangings.

ALLIED OFFENSIVE ON ITALIAN FRONT GROWS IN INTENSITY

(American Press)

London, Oct. 30.—Austro-Hungarian forces are being driven from the mountain passes toward the Austrian frontier and across the plains east of the Piave in northern Italy.

Attacks are being delivered by the allies over a front of 40 miles, from the Brenta to the middle reaches of the Piave river. American reserves are behind the lines, prepared to aid the allies when the opportune moment arrives.

Large numbers of prisoners and numerous guns have been taken by the allied troops in the big battle that is in progress on the Italian front. The allies, particularly the British, are well across the Piave river.

Around Valenciennes the engagements between the British and the Germans have savored more of outpost encounters than pitched battles. In whatever fighting there has been, however, Field Marshal Haig's men have retained the upper hand and taken more prisoners and additional guns and war stores.

Farther south the French are continuing successfully their process of leveling the old salient between the territory east of St. Quentin and Reims. Additional progress has been made by General Debeney's troops, notwithstanding the violent resistance of the Germans, who, all along the front, are using machine guns to retard the advance of the Frenchmen toward the important lines of railway communication to the east. On some sectors the Germans are slowly retreating, but nowhere are the French patrols permitting the enemy to get out of contact with them.

Aside from artillery and machine gun activity there has been little fighting on that part of the front held by the Americans from the Meuse river to the vicinity of Grand Pre. The Germans have been heavily bombing the American positions with shells of all caliber, including gas projectiles, with the Americans answering them shot for shot. The new big guns of the Americans are violently shelling German positions far behind the lines. Confians, lying to the west of Metz and the principal junction point of communication with the big fortress on the Moselle and Spincourt, and Dommary-Baroncourt, also important railroad junctions, all are under a particularly heavy fire from the American guns.

ANOTHER CHANGE OF TIME TO COME IN PART OF OHIO

During the latter part of November another change of time will occur in the eastern half of Ohio, as result of the congressional action establishing the "eastern time" zone so as to include about one-half of the state.

This change will not include a change of time in this city, but probably will be somewhat annoying because of the proximity of the eastern time zone line, which passes through Circleville, Chillicothe, Columbus and other Ohio towns.

According to tentative plans the boundary line of the state's new time zone will run southeast along the New York Central from Toledo to Monroeville, Huron county; south to Chicago Junction and thence to Mansfield. From Mansfield the proposed line runs southwest through Gallon to Marion. The line from Marion runs directly south through Delaware to Columbus and thence to Chillicothe and Gallipolis. At this point the line runs southwest along the Ohio river on the West Virginia side of Huntington, from which point it runs southeast to the Virginia line. All territory to the east of the boundary line is in the eastern time zone. All to the west is in the central time. Circleville is in the eastern time zone.

There are a few exceptions as follows: Fremont, Clyde, Bellview, Monroeville, Chicago Junction, Shelby Junction, Gallon, Lancaster, Dundas, and Gallipolis, are located upon the zone boundary line but the commission has decided they are to be considered within the eastern time zone.

EPIDEMIC IN OHIO AT A STANDSTILL ASSERT OFFICIALS

(American Press)

Columbus, Oct. 30.—The influenza epidemic in Ohio appears to be at a standstill, getting neither better nor worse. Fifty physicians have been sent to stricken Ohio communities by the public health service.

Ohio is fortunate in having a less virulent form of influenza among civilians than prevailed in the east, according to James E. Bauman, acting state health commissioner.

Dr. E. W. Scott, in charge here for the United States health services, makes the same comment after having been in the midst of the epidemic in the east.

The virulence of an epidemic depends itself as it travels from the main center of infection, they said. It was brought into this country both at the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. As it spreads to the middle of the country it becomes less virulent. Because it started first in the east, however, the point where the two waves will meet and where the disease will be mildest will be on a line west of the middle country. Army and naval camps suffered the severe type because it was brought to them quickly upon introduction in this country, it is explained. What adds to virulence also, it is said, is a speedy contagion. Where members of a family get it in quick succession from a fresh culture of the bacteria the disease usually is more virulent. It acts the same way in a congested community, it is said.

Major A. W. Freeman, on leave as state health commissioner, has written a letter to Mr. Bauman saying he is sorry he can not be here to help out the department. He says, however, he has been busy enough himself fighting the disease at Camp Pike, Ark. Several members of Dr. Freeman's family had the influenza.

DESTROY TUNNEL OF IMPORTANCE

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Moscow, October 29.—Soviet newspapers were enthusiastic over the news of the destruction of Tunnel 36 on the Trans-Siberian Railway east of Irkutsk in the Lake Baikal section, and declared the hindrance would delay American and Japanese troops from 6 months to one year in their movement to relieve the Czechoslovaks. The Izvestia says the Soviet forces exploded 1040 pounds of dynamite in the tunnel and destroyed it completely.

This tunnel is one of a series of forty-eight which carries the railway through the bases of mountains and hills jutting into Lake Baikal.

ASKS RE-ELECTION

JOSEPH G. MCGHEE

Attorney General Joseph McGhee is a candidate for re-election, and the success which marked his first administration merits for him a second term.

During his administration Mr. McGhee's department has handled almost one thousand cases for the state; it has collected over four hundred and twenty thousand dollars in delinquent claims due the state; has passed on bonds purchased by the Industrial Commission to the extent of three million, five hundred thousand dollars. Besides this work the Attorney General has rendered about fifteen hundred official opinions to the different state department and the prosecuting attorneys of the various counties, and in an official opinion, which was sustained by the lower courts and is now being tested in the Supreme Court, he succeeded in driving out of the state bag and baggage, the liability insurance companies the foe of workmen's compensation.

Again in the school book matter Mr. McGhee stood steadfastly by the people when he not only saved them thousands of dollars, but defeated any and all attempts of the book companies to raise prices by compelling the companies to carry out existing contracts.

In addition to the regular duties of the office, Mr. McGhee has personally served on the State Legal Advisory Board, which was formed for the purpose of furnishing free legal advice to soldiers and their families. Many new and perplexing questions arising by reason of war activities have trebled the work of Mr. McGhee's department, but he has met every phase with promptness and efficiency. Advt.

MEMOIR

Mary, the third daughter of Amos and Maria Howard, was born in Wayne Township, Pickaway County, January 22, 1840 and died in Good Hope, Fayette County Ohio, October 11, 1918. Age 78 years 8 months and 18 days.

She was united in marriage to R. J. Nelson, August 12, 1856. To this union was born ten children, seven girls and three boys, one daughter having preceded her to the Great Beyond, July 10, 1890.

Mrs. Nelson was a woman, who was always devoted to her home and family, a hard working and upright woman, always interested in her home duties, but both husband and children feel what is their loss is her Eternal gain.

On February 1, 1862 she with her husband was baptized by Elder D. D. Johnston, into the fellowship of the Sugar Creek Baptist Church. And every since has lived the life of a faithful Christian, telling the pastor of the Good Hope Church, the day before her death, that she was trusting in Jesus and ready and willing to go.

After 60 years of wedded life together it is hard on the part of the husband to give her up. But all he can say is, Thy will Oh Lord be done. Therefore we leave her in the hands of God who alone holds the issues of life and death, knowing as we do that He is too wise to err and too good to do wrong. Therefore we bow in humble submission to His will.

Mrs. Nelson leaves besides her husband, nine children, John of Mansara, Jacob of Good Hope, with whom she made her home, Clara Harker of Springfield, Francis Clouser, of Greenfield, Jessie Reveal, Elizabeth Dixon, Kate Follis, Belle Arbogast, Charley, all of this city, one sister Elizabeth Weimer, of Columbus Ohio, and one brother Jacob Howard of Good Hope. Fourteen grand children, several great grand children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Dearest mother thou hast left us And thy loss we deeply feel But 'tis God who hath bereft us He can all our sorrow heal.

ARMISTICE COMES FIRST

(American Press)

Washington, Oct. 30.—It is felt here that the Austrian government's renewed appeal to President Wilson for an immediate armistice and peace may be transmitted to the allied governments before Germany's request has been placed.

In some quarters there is a disposition to accord different treatment to the Austrian plea because of the complex problems arising from the new conditions that apparently have developed in the dual monarchy since the president replied to Austria's original request for an immediate cessation of hostilities.

Those adhering to the opinion that different treatment should be accorded to the Austrian request than was given the plea of the German government pointed to cable dispatches reporting the establishment of the independent state of Hungary; of the recognition of that state of the independence of the Czech-Slovak and Jugoslav provinces and also of German-Austria as suggesting the introduction of complex factors into the problem of settling with the dual empire. Even if each of the many nationalities that make up that empire becomes independent before peace is arranged, it was said that they still must bear their individual shares of the responsibility for the acts committed by the empire. Logically each might have to sue for a separate peace.

However, it is believed the American government will not be diverted from the pursuit of its main object by the consideration of these individual uprisings in Austria-Hungary. It probably will follow consistently the course pursued in dealing with Germany and insist on treating first the proposition for an armistice, which it regards as a purely military question, leaving to the final peace conference the adjustment of the claims to independent existence of the various oppressed nationalities in Austria-Hungary.

While there is doubt that it would be practical to attack Germany from the south, the best informed entente officers on duty here firmly believe that Germany would not attempt to fight on with Austria out of the war. The greatest fear the Germans have, they say, is of invasion of German soil, and in the end, they believe, Germany will capitulate rather than face that contingency.

AUSTRIA SENDS ANOTHER NOTE

(American Press)

Vienna, Oct. 30.—The new note just sent by the new foreign minister, Count Andrássy, to Secretary of State Lansing at Washington, follows:

Immediately after having taken direction of the ministry of foreign affairs and after the dispatch of the official answer to your note of Oct. 18, 1918, by which you were able to see that we accept all the points and principles laid down by President Wilson in his various declarations and are in complete accord with efforts of President Wilson to prevent future wars and to create a league of nations, we have taken preparatory measures in order that Austrians and Hungarians may be able, according to their own desire and without being in any way hindered, to make a decision as to their future organization and to rule it.

Since the accession to power of Emperor King Charles his immovable purpose has been to bring an end to the war. More than ever this is the desire of the sovereign of all the Austro-Hungarian peoples, who acknowledge that their future destiny can only be accomplished in a pacific world by being freed from all disturbances, privations and sorrows of war.

This is why I address you directly, Mr. Secretary of State, praying that you will have the goodness to intervene with the president of the United States in the interest of humanity, as in the interest of all those who live in Austria-Hungary, that an immediate armistice may be concluded on all fronts and for an overture that immediate negotiations, for peace will follow.

AUSTRIA IS OUT OF THE BIG WAR

(American Press)

Copenhagen, Oct. 30.—Commenting on the Austrian note, German Liberal newspapers say there is no use so complain, and that Austria's action was no surprise to Germany. "We must regard Austria as definitely out of the war," is the consensus of German press comment. Austrian newspapers consider the alliance with Germany as finally broken.

"The world war will not last longer than a few days; we must arrest the vain flow of our blood," declares the Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts, which is now regarded as virtually a German government organ. It is upon Austria's bureaucrats, who sent the ultimatum to Serbia, that the responsibility for the war rests the heaviest. Austria's disappearance will end the war.

MODERN RESIDENCE PROPERTY CHANGES

Mr. W. E. Summers, of the Summers Piano Company, has purchased the modern residence property of Mr. P. F. Ortman, who expects to move to California in the near future, having disposed of his business interests in this city.

The property is located on East Paint street, and is new and thoroughly modern in every respect. Mr. and Mrs. Summers will move into their new home within the next ten days, or as soon as it is vacated by Mr. Ortman and family, who will move to Los Angeles, California, much to the deep regret of a host of friends in this city and county.

SHAKEN BY ROAR OF GUNS, PRIVATE BURNETT WRITES

Shaken so severely by the constant concussion of mighty guns that he could hardly write, Private Edward L. Burnett, of this city, writes to his mother and brothers in this city as follows:

Somewhere in France,
September 28, 1918.

Dear Mother and Bros.:

We are now in the thick of it. The bullets have been whistling over our heads for 2 or 3 days. They sure make some noise when they burst. See the Americans bringing back lots of German prisoners, they pass right along the road by us. They are all old men and young boys. They are all glad to be taken by the Americans. Saw a fight between 5 airplanes yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. It sure was a pretty one. The Allies are pushing the Germans back all along the old front. Looks like they are trying to finish it this fall.

I ran across Bill Mintern the other day; he is in an ambulance corps. His father works at Dahl-Campbells you know. Have never run across Buck or Porter yet, but passed through where they were. We traveled through the prettiest part of France coming to the front. It sure was some trip. I wouldn't miss this for a million dollars.

Have got several souvenirs that I picked up in the trenches and dugouts. I will bring them home with me when I come. The earth is shaking so bad from the roar of our big guns that I can hardly write. Have been working very hard the last week or so and am due for a rest pretty soon. It won't be long now until I will get my first service stripe, a gold one on the left cuff of my coat. You get one for every six months service overseas. We also get stripes for wounds received. I hope that I don't get any of them but am willing to take some if it will help us beat the Huns.

Well, how is everything around home by now? Quiet I suppose. Have not received any Herald for quite a while. You don't get mail up here as fast as you do back of the lines. They haven't time to bring up anything but ammunition and supplies. Well when I do get some of them it will be just like getting them off the press as all the local news will be new to me.

Don't worry if you don't hear from me regularly as I can only write now when I get the time. I will write you again next week. Give all my friends my best. Good-bye for this time.

Tired, Nervous Women What You Need is Vinol

The reason we recommend Vinol so strongly for such conditions is because it is a non-secret remedy which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycero-phosphates, the very elements needed to build up a run-down system and replace weakness with strength.

HERE IS PROOF

Glasgow, Ky. "I was suffering from a nervous breakdown—loss of flesh and poor appetite so I could hardly drag around and do the work for my family. My doctor prescribed Vinol. It not only made me well and strong but I have gained in weight."—Mrs. S. M. Gray.

Milwaukee, Wis. "I was weak, nervous, all run down, no appetite and had taken different medicines without benefit. A friend advised me to try Vinol. It gave me a wonderful appetite, I sleep well, have gained in weight and am now strong and well."—Mrs. E. Strey.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.
